

the harvest foundation

Grant Awards Made by the Board of Directors, December 9, 2003

HEALTH

To Improve The Community's Health By Emphasizing Prevention, Safety, And Access To Care

Family Life Services – Free Medical Clinic: $22,000 for general operations and to help with financial reporting and board development.

Contact: Cathy Philbrook, Executive Director Telephone: 276-666-4081

Patrick Henry Community College Educational Foundation, Inc.: $466,850 over three years to consolidate existing allied health career programs and launch new ones in order to offer career opportunities for students and to provide improved health care for the community.

Contact: Kathleen Holt Smith, Vice President Institutional Advancement
Telephone: 276-656-0281

EDUCATION

To Improve The Learning Environment For Citizenship, Academic, And Vocational Preparedness

Carlisle School: $20,000 to begin curriculum alignment in the areas of math and literacy and to further examine Iowa Test data.

Contact: Colin Ferguson, Headmaster Telephone: 276-632-7288

Henry County Schools: $190,000 to enable its sixteen schools to engage in planning to begin the Differentiation of Instruction process focused on math and literacy.

Contacts: Dewitt House, Assistant Superintendent of Instruction
Dr. Sharon Dodson, Superintendent Telephone: 276-634-4764

Martinsville City Schools: $75,000 to enable the district's six schools to begin addressing the performance of students in the areas of literacy and math.

Contacts: Nancy Bell, Grants/Public Relations Coordinator
Dr. Ira R. Trollinger, Superintendent Telephone: 276-632-6313

United Fund of Henry County and Martinsville, Inc.: $165,000 over three years to continue and expand the Success By 6 Initiative for the community's young children.

Contact: Kathy Rogers, Executive Director Telephone: 276-638-3946

WELFARE

*To Facilitate Opportunities For Our Citizens,
To Help Our Community Reach Its Potential*

Bassett Community Center, Inc.: $135,710 to support the center's needed physical improvements and to train its newly elected Board of Directors.

Contact: Suzie Helbert, Director

Telephone: 276-629-5225

Boaz & Ruth, Inc.: $75,000 over two years to launch a new program in Martinsville that will offer life and job skills development for underserved residents, promote greater community engagement, and improved race relations.

Contact: Martha Rollins, President

Telephone: 804-334-6608

Citizens Against Family Violence, Inc.: $103,000 over three years to help managerially and financially stabilize the organization in order to deliver more effective services for abused and destitute women and their children.

Contact: Benjamin Murdock, Executive Director

Telephone: 276-632-8701

The Eastern Shepherd Drug Rehabilitation Center, Inc.: $10,000 to assist with development of a strategic business plan to determine whether a new substance abuse program should be launched.

Contact: Virginia Barker, President

Telephone: 276-629-2954

Gateway Streetscape Foundation, Inc.: $10,067 for a greenhouse and equipment to expand the capabilities and effectiveness of the urban greening program.

Contact: Lois Christensen, Executive Director

Telephone: 276-634-4674

Partners for Livable Communities: $35,000 to initiate a project to identify needs and develop specific solutions to make the community more livable for its older residents.

Contact: Robert H. McNulty, President

Telephone: 202-887-5990